The Explanatory Memorandum provides Members with information that is reasonably required by Members to decide how to vote upon the resolutions to be considered at the meeting. The directors recommend that Members carefully read this Explanatory Memorandum before determining the manner in which they vote on a resolution.

Other than as contained in the Notice of Annual General Meeting, this Explanatory Memorandum and the Company's Annual Report for the year ended 30 June 2023, the directors believe that there is no other information known to the Company or the directors that is reasonably required by Members to decide whether or not to pass each resolution.

1. Financial Statements & Reports

The Corporations Act requires that the Company's financial statements and reports for the last financial year be laid before the AGM. The financial statements and reports are contained in the Company's Annual Report for the year ended 30 June 2023, which accompanies the Notice of Annual General Meeting (unless you have elected not to receive a copy of the report). A copy of the Company's Annual Report is also available on the website at www.resimac.com.au.

Members are not required to approve the Financial Report, the Directors' Report or the Auditor's Report. During this item of business, however, Members will be given a reasonable opportunity to raise questions and make comments on the financial statements and reports at the AGM.

A representative from Deloitte, the Company's Auditor, will also be present at the meeting and Members will have an opportunity to ask the Auditor questions in relation to the conduct of the audit, the Auditor's Report, the Company's accounting policies and the independence of the Auditor.

Members may also submit written questions to the Auditor regarding the content of the Auditor's Report or the conduct of the audit process. The Remuneration Report is set out in the Directors' Report, which forms part of the Company's Annual Report 2023. The Remuneration Report details the remuneration paid to the directors and other KMPs during the financial year, explains the Board's policy for determining the nature and amount of the remuneration paid by the Company, the relationship between the Board's remuneration policy and the Company's performance and the performance hurdles applicable to the remuneration of KMPs.

The Company's remuneration policies and practices have been designed to align the interests of directors and KMPs of the Company and those of the Members. Although the vote on Resolution 1 is advisory only and does not bind the directors, the Board will take the outcome of the vote into consideration when reviewing the remuneration practices and policies.

Members will be given a reasonable opportunity at the AGM to comment on and ask questions about the Company's Remuneration Report.
